State of New Mexico
Sixth Judicial District Court
Silver City, New Mexico

Report on Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the governmental activities, each major fund, the aggregate remaining fund information, and the budgetary comparisons for the general fund and the major special revenue fund of the Sixth Judicial District Court, as of and for the year ended June 30, 2018, and the related notes to the financial statements which collectively comprise the Sixth Judicial District Court's basic financial statements as listed in the table of contents.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatements, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express opinions on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinions.

Mr. Wayne Johnson, State Auditor and
Honorable Jennifer E. Delaney, Chief Judge

Opinions

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the respective financial position of the governmental activities, each major fund, and the aggregate remaining fund information of the Sixth Judicial District Court, as of June 30, 2018, and the respective changes in financial position and the respective budgetary comparisons for the general fund and the major special revenue fund for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Emphasis of Matter

As discussed in Note 1, the financial statements of the Sixth Judicial District Court, are intended to present the financial position, the changes in financial position, and the respective budgetary comparisons of only that portion of the governmental activities and each major fund of the State of New Mexico that is attributable to the transactions of the Sixth Judicial District Court. They do not purport to, and do not, present fairly the financial position of the State of New Mexico as of June 30, 2018, and the changes in its financial position for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other Matters

Required Supplementary Information

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require that the management's discussion and analysis on pages 5 through 13 be presented to supplement the basic financial statements. Such information, although not a part of the basic financial statements, is required by the Governmental Accounting Standards Board who considers it to be an essential part of financial reporting for placing the basic financial statements in an appropriate operational, economic, or historical context. We have applied certain limited procedures to the required supplementary information in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, which consisted of inquiries of management about the methods of preparing the information and comparing the information for consistency with management's responses to our inquiries, the basic financial statements, and other knowledge we obtained during our audit of the basic financial statements. We do not express an opinion or provide any assurance on the information because the limited procedures do not provide us with sufficient evidence to express an opinion or provide any assurance.

Other Information

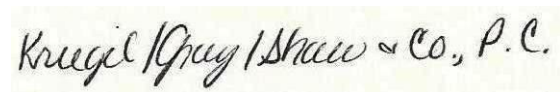

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming opinions on the Sixth Judicial District Court's financial statements and the budgetary comparisons. The "supplementary information" required by 2.2.2 NMAC is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements.

Mr. Wayne Johnson, State Auditor and
Honorable Jennifer E. Delaney, Chief Judge
State of New Mexico
Sixth Judicial District Court
Silver City, New Mexico
Page Three

The additional schedules listed as “supplementary information” required by 2.2.2 NMAC are the responsibility of management and were derived from and relate directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the basic financial statements or to the basic financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the “supplementary information” required by 2.2.2 NMAC is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the basic financial statements as a whole.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated October 5, 2018 on our consideration of Sixth Judicial District Court’s internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the Sixth Judicial District Court’s internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

JUNE 30, 2018

OVERVIEW

The following is a summary overview of the Sixth Judicial District Court's previous year of operation, including financial information, internal structure, management structure, and the financial issues that have affected this agency in fiscal year 2018.

This management's discussion and analysis are intended to serve as an introduction to the Sixth Judicial District Court's basic financial statements. The District Court's basic financial statements are comprised of three components: (1) government-wide financial statements, (2) fund financial statements, and (3) notes to the financial statements. In addition to the basic financial statements, the report contains other supplementary information.

An outline of this agency's approach is to ensure achievement of its future goals and implementation of new projects and improvements.

History

The Sixth Judicial District Courts are established in NMSA 1978, §34-6-9 and stationed in Grant, Luna and Hidalgo Counties. The courts are divided into four divisions with two judges based in Grant County and two judges based in Luna County. The workload for the three Counties is distributed among the four judges. The District Court provides litigant due process, access to justice, and resolution of disputes in a timely manner. The court staff maintains accurate records of legal proceedings and accounts for funds they are authorized to receive. When called upon, the District Court of this judicial district protects the rights and liberties of the citizens of these three counties as guaranteed by the Constitutions of both New Mexico and the United States.

Court Structure: Located in the New Mexico General Appropriation Act of 2017, House Bill 2, the Sixth Judicial District Court is allotted four district judges and 33 employees (includes two part-time employees). There are 16.5 District Court employees (includes two judges) in Luna County, while Grant County is served by 20 District Court employees (includes two judges), with two employees working in the Hidalgo County. The District has 1 part-time judicial specialist vacant.

FY18 Allotment: The District's original appropriated operating budget was $3,229,600 as designated in Laws of 2017, House Bill 2, First Regular Session, Chapter 135, Section 4. The District received additional financing of $261,500 ($227,500/transfers from AOC + $34,000/revenue) for other programs.

Net Position

The Sixth Judicial District Court reported balances in three net asset categories for fiscal year ending June 30, 2018. These categories are Invested Capital Assets, Restricted Assets, and Unrestricted Assets.

State statute regarding restricted net assets are required to be utilized for mediation programs that target domestic relations cases and civil cases involving alternative dispute resolution. Unrestricted Net Assets are negative, due to the government's policy to fund compensated absences payable out of current resources as they become due.

While Non-Current Liabilities increased, due to the slight increase in Compensated Absences, the change in total liabilities is a result of improved processing of day-to-day expenditures and the turn around time from DFA, as our agency's working knowledge of the SHARE program improves.

All programs are operating accurately and efficiently through team participation.

The District collects revenues through the clerk's office from filing fees, mediation fees, and fines, which are deposited to designated accounts and then transferred to the State Treasurer's Office located in Santa Fe, New Mexico. Meetings are also held with the participation of the other judges for involvement, understanding, and agreement regarding issues of particular interest to this agency.

In addition, there is communication between the supervisors and the Court Executive Officer on either financial and/or human resource matters that involve subordinates.

STATE OF NEW MEXICO
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2018

NOTE 1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Sixth Judicial District Court (Court) operates under Section 34-6-1, 34-6-9 and 34-6-17 through 34-6-46, NMSA 1978 Compilation. The Court covers Grant, Luna, and Hidalgo Counties. The Court is comprised of ten divisions as authorized in the above sections. The Court is the State Court of general jurisdiction and is authorized to hear and determine all civil and criminal cases which are not specifically exempted from its jurisdiction. Financing of the Court is primarily by state appropriation and grant funds.

Reporting Entity

The financial reporting entity as defined by GASB Statement 61 consists of the primary government, organizations for which the primary government is financially accountable and other organizations for which the nature and significance of their relationship with the primary government are such that exclusion would cause the reporting entity's financial statements to be misleading or incomplete. This definition of the reporting entity is based primarily on the notion of financial accountability as the "cornerstone of all financial reporting in government."

These financial statements include all funds and activities over which the Court has oversight responsibility. The Court has decision-making authority, the power to designate management, the responsibility to significantly influence operations, and primary accountability for fiscal matters. Additionally, the Court is part of the primary government of the State of New Mexico and its financial data should be included with the financial data of the State, when it issues an audited Comprehensive Annual Financial Report inclusive of all agencies of the primary government.

In evaluating how to define the government, for financial reporting purposes, management has considered all potential component units. The decision to include a potential component unit in the reporting entity was made by applying the criteria set forth in GAAP and GASB Statement 14.

The basic, but not the only criterion for including a potential component unit within the reporting entity, is the governing body's ability to exercise oversight responsibility. The most significant manifestation of this ability is financial interdependency. Other manifestations of the ability to exercise oversight responsibility include, but are not limited to, the selection of governing authority, the designation of management, the ability to significantly influence operations, and accountability for fiscal matters.

A second criterion used in evaluating potential component units is the scope of public service. Application of this criterion involves considering whether the activity benefits the government and/or its citizens, or whether the activity is conducted within the geographic boundaries of the government and is generally available to its citizens.

A third criterion used to evaluate potential component units for inclusion or exclusion from the reporting entity is the existence of special financing relationships, regardless of whether the Court is able to exercise oversight responsibility. Based on the application of these criteria, there are no component units identified or excluded from the reporting entity.

The Sixth Judicial District Court is a component unit of the Judicial Branch and these financial statements include all funds and activities over which the Court has oversight responsibility. The Court is not included in any other government "reporting entity" as described in Section 2100, "Codification of Government Accounting and Financial Reporting Standards".

Government-Wide and Fund Financial Statements

The government-wide financial statements (i.e., the statement of net position and the statement of changes in net position) report information on all of the nonfiduciary activities of the primary government. All assets, all liabilities and deferred outflows and inflows of resources are included on the statement of net position. At June 30, 2018, the Court did not have any deferred outflows or inflows of resources. The effect of interfund activity has been removed from these statements. Governmental activities, which normally are supported by taxes and intergovernmental revenues, are reported separately from business-type activities, which rely to a significant extent on fees and charges for support. The District Court does not have any business-type activities.

The statement of activities demonstrates the degree to which the direct expenses of a given function or segment is offset by program revenues. Direct expenses are those that are clearly identifiable with a specific function or segment. Program revenues include (1) charges to customers or applicants who purchase, use, or directly benefit from goods, services, or privileges provided by the judiciary and (2) grants and contributions that are restricted to meeting the operational or capital requirements of the judiciary. Taxes and other items not properly included among program revenues are reported instead as general revenues.

Separate financial statements are provided for the governmental funds and fiduciary funds, even though the latter are excluded from the government-wide financial statements. Major individual governmental funds and major individual enterprise funds are reported as separate columns in the fund financial statements.

Measurement Focus, Basis of Accounting, and Financial Statement Presentation

The government-wide and fiduciary funds financial statements are reported using the economic resources measurement focus and the accrual basis of accounting. Revenues are recorded when earned and expenses are recorded when a liability is incurred, regardless of the timing of related cash flows.

Governmental fund financial statements are reported using the current financial resources measurement focus and the modified accrual basis of accounting. Revenues are recognized as soon as they are both measurable and available. Revenues are considered to be available when they are collectible within the current period. For this purpose, the District Court considers revenues to be available if they are collected within sixty days of the end of the current fiscal period. Grants and similar items are recognized as revenue as soon as all eligibility requirements imposed by the provider have been met. All other revenues are recognized when they are received and are not susceptible to accrual, because they are usually not measurable until payment is actually received. Expenditures are recorded as liabilities when they are incurred, except for certain compensated absences that are recognized when the obligations are expected to be liquidated with expendable available financial resources. When both restricted and unrestricted resources are available for use, it is the Court's policy to use restricted resources first and then unrestricted resources as they are recorded.

The District Court reports the following major governmental funds:

General Fund

The general fund is the general operating fund of the District Court. It is used to account for all financial resources except those required to be accounted for in another fund. Any unreserved fund balance from state appropriations remaining at the end of the fiscal year reverts to the general fund of the state of New Mexico. The SHARE fund number and description for the general fund of the District Court is 14600 - Sixth Judicial District Court.

The Court receives special appropriations to operate certain special programs including the CASA program, Juvenile Drug Court and Adult Drug Court.

Mediation Fund

The Court provides on a fee basis, a mediation alternative to legal resolution of domestic disputes such as consideration of divorce, child custody and visitation issues. The authority for creation and maintenance of this fund is given under New Mexico State Statutes 34-6-44 and 40-12-4 and, as such, the fund balance will not revert to the State of New Mexico's general fund. The SHARE fund number is 52100.

Other Funds:

Alternative Dispute Resolution Fund

The Court has also established the Alternative Dispute Resolution fund for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2018. This program is meant to create cost-effective means of enhancing efficiency in the Court by increasing the rate of case resolution, as well as the litigant's satisfaction with the Court system. The authority for creation and maintenance of this fund is given per New Mexico State Statute 34-6-45, which also establishes that the fund is non-reverting. The SHARE fund number is 68370.

Fiduciary Funds

Agency Funds

Agency funds are used to account for assets held by the District Court in a trustee capacity or as an agent for individuals, private organizations, other governments, and/or other funds. Agency funds are custodial in nature (assets equal liabilities) and do not involve measurement of results of operations.

The District Court has two agency funds:

1. Litigant's Fund – These monies are amounts collected from persons involved in pending lawsuits. The District Court has custody and, if directed by the District Court, may invest these monies until refunded to litigants. The interest earned, if stated in the court order, is refunded and, if not stated, the interest earned is transferred to the state general fund.
2. Treasurer's Fund – These monies are collected from individuals filing with the District Court. These monies are remitted intact to the New Mexico State Treasurer.

Budgets

The District Court follows these procedures in establishing the budgetary data reflected in the financial statements:

1. Prior to September 1st, the District Court submits to the Department of Finance and Administration (DFA) an appropriation request for the fiscal year commencing the following July 1st. The appropriation request includes proposed expenditures and the means of financing those expenditures.
2. Budget hearings are scheduled before the New Mexico House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees. The final outcome of these hearings is incorporated into the General Appropriations Act.
3. The governor of the state of New Mexico signs the Act into law, within the legally prescribed time limit.
4. The District Court submits, no later than May 1st to DFA, an annual operating budget by category and line item based upon the appropriation made by the Legislature. The DFA - Budget Division reviews and approves the operating budget, which becomes effective on July 1st. The Legislative Finance Committee and the State Budget Division must approve all subsequent budget adjustments. The budget for the current year was amended in a legal manner.
5. Legal budget control for expenditures is by the appropriation program level.
6. Formal budgetary integration is employed as a management control device during the fiscal year for the General Fund.
7. The General Appropriation Act, Laws of 2008, Section 3, Subsection F establishes the modified accrual basis of accounting for governmental funds as the budgetary basis of accounting for the state of New Mexico. So long as the appropriation period has not lapsed and a budget has been approved by the DFA, an encumbrance can be charged against that budget. However, when the appropriation period lapses, so does the authority for the budget. The result is the encumbrance can no longer be charged to that budget. If the Legislature has provided a new appropriation, the encumbrance is carried forward to a new appropriation period to be charged against the new budget. If the Legislature has not provided a new appropriation, the encumbrance is no longer authorized and the amount of the encumbrance must be restored to unreserved fund balance. For reverting funds, the unreserved fund balance must revert to the state general fund at the end of the appropriation period.
8. There is one statutory exception to the modified accrual basis for budget. That exception addresses accounts payable accrued at the end of the fiscal year that are not paid by the statutory deadline, per Section 6-10-4 NMSA 1978. Accounts payable that are not paid timely must be paid out of the following year's budget.
9. Each year the Legislature approves multiple year appropriations, which the State considers as continuing appropriations. The Legislature authorizes these appropriations for two to five years; however, it does not identify the authorized amount by fiscal year. Consequently, the appropriation is budgeted in its entirety the first year that the Legislature authorizes it. The unexpended portion of the budget is carried forward as the next year's beginning budget balance until either the project period has expired or the appropriation has been fully expended. The budget presentations in these financial statements are consistent with this budgeting methodology.

Assets Liabilities and Net Position or Equity

Cash

The District Court has defined cash to include cash on hand and demand deposits.

Receivables and Payables

Activities between funds that are representative of lending/borrowing arrangements outstanding at the end of the fiscal year are referred to as either “due to/from other funds” or “advances to/from other funds”. Advances between funds, as reported in the fund financial statements, are offset by a fund balance reserve account in applicable governmental funds to indicate that they are not available for appropriation and are not expendable or not available, expendable financial resources.

Capital Assets

Capital assets, which include property, plant, equipment and infrastructure, are reported in the applicable governmental or business-type activities columns in the government-wide financial statements. Prior to June 17, 2005, the District Court defined capital assets as assets with an initial individual cost of more than $1,000 and an estimated useful life in excess of one year. Effective June 17, 2005, in accordance with Section 12-6-10 NMSA 1978, the District Court changed its capitalization threshold to include only assets with a cost of $5,000 or more. All assets capitalized prior to June 17, 2005 that are property of the District Court remain on the financial and accounting records of the District Court.

Purchased or constructed assets are recorded at historical cost or estimated cost. Donated capital assets are recorded at estimated fair market value at the date of the donation. Costs other than personnel expenses for computer software developed internally, are capitalized and depreciated over the useful life of the software. Purchased computer software is recorded at historical cost.

Depreciation is provided over assets’ estimated useful lives using the straight-line method of depreciation. The range of estimated useful lives by type of asset is as follows:

Furniture and fixtures	7 years
Equipment and machinery	7 years
Automobiles	7 years
Data processing	5 years

In the fund financial statements, capital assets used in governmental fund operations are accounted for as capital outlay expenditures of the governmental fund upon acquisition.

Compensated Absences

District Court employees may accumulate limited amounts of vacation pay, which are payable to the employee upon termination or retirement. For governmental funds, expenditures are recognized during the period in which vacation costs become payable from available, expendable resources. A liability for amounts earned but not payable from available, expendable resources is reported in the government-wide financial statements. District Court employees may accumulate limited amounts of sick leave. For governmental funds, expenditures are recognized during the period in which sick leave costs become payable from available, expendable resources. A liability for amounts earned but not payable from available, expendable resources is reported in the government-wide financial statements.

Net Position

The government-wide and business-type activities fund financial statements utilize a net position presentation. Net position is categorized as follows:

1. Net investment in capital assets - This category reflects the portion of net position that is associated with capital assets less outstanding capital asset-related debt.
2. Restricted - This category reflects the portion of net position that has third party limitations on their use.
3. Unrestricted - This category reflects net position of the District Court not restricted for any project or other purpose.

Fund Equity Reservation and Designations

In the fund financial statements, governmental funds report aggregate amounts for five classifications of fund balances based on the constraints imposed on the use of these resources. The nonspendable fund balance classification includes amounts that cannot be spent because they are either (a) not in spendable form – i.e., prepaid items or inventories; or (b) legally or contractually required to be maintained intact.

The spendable portion of the fund balance comprises the remaining four classifications: restricted, committed, assigned, and unassigned.

Restricted fund balance - This classification reflects the constraints imposed on resources either (a) externally by creditors, grantors, contributors, or laws or regulations of other governments; or (b) imposed by law through constitutional provisions or enabling legislation.

Committed fund balance - These amounts can only be used for specific purposes pursuant to constraints imposed by formal action of the Court - the entity's highest level of decision making authority. Those committed amounts cannot be used for any other purpose unless the Court Executive Officer removes the specified use by taking the same type of action imposing the commitment. This classification also includes contractual obligations to the extent that existing resources in the fund have been specifically committed for use in satisfying those contractual requirements.

STATE OF NEW MEXICO
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Assigned fund balance - This classification reflects the amounts constrained by the District Court's "intent" to be used for specific purposes, but are neither restricted nor committed. This intent can be expressed by the Court, or through the Court delegating this responsibility to the Court Executive Officer through the budgetary process. Assigned fund balances include any remaining amounts (except negative balances) that are reported in governmental funds other than the General Fund, that are not classified as nonspendable and are neither restricted nor committed.

Unassigned fund balance - This fund balance is the residual classification for the General Fund. It is also used to report negative fund balances in other governmental funds.

When both restricted and unrestricted resources are available for use, it is the District Court's policy to use externally restricted resources first, then unrestricted resources - committed, assigned, and unassigned - in order, as needed.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE 2. CASH AND DEPOSITS WITH FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

Cash

New Mexico State Statutes provide authoritative guidance regarding the deposit of cash and idle cash. Deposits of funds may be made in interest or non-interest bearing checking accounts in one or more banks or savings and loan associations within the geographical boundaries of the District Court. Deposits may be made to the extent that they are insured by an agency of the United States of America, by collateral deposited as security, or by bond given by the financial institution. The rate of interest in non-demand interest-bearing accounts shall be set by the state Board of Finance, but in no case shall the rate of interest be less than one hundred percent of the asked price on United States treasury bills of the same maturity on the day of deposit. Idle cash may be invested in a wide variety of instruments including money market accounts, certificates of deposit, the New Mexico State Treasurers investment pool, or in securities which are issued by the state or by the United States government or their departments or agencies, and which are either direct obligations of the state or the United States, or are backed by the full faith and credit of those governments. Cash includes cash on hand and cash deposits in financial institutions. The District Court's deposits are carried at cost.

As of June 30, 2018, the amount of cash reported on the financial statements differs from the amount on deposit with the various institutions because of transactions in transit and outstanding checks. The locations and amounts deposited are as follows:

Statement of fiduciary net position	94,729

Except for items in transit, the carrying value of deposits by the respective depositories equated to the carrying value by the District Court. All deposits are collateralized with eligible securities, as described by New Mexico State Statute, in amounts equal to at least 50% of the Court's carrying value of the deposits (demand and certificates of deposit).

Such collateral, as permitted by the state statutes, is held in each respective depository bank's collateral pool at a Federal Reserve Bank or member bank other than the depository bank, in the name of the respective depository bank and pledged as a pool of collateral against all of the public deposits it holds, with the exception of deposit insurance provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

	Wells Fargo Bank	Western Bank
Demand deposits (interest bearing)	$134,870	$11,694
FDIC coverage	(250,000)	(11,694)
Total uninsured public funds	$0	$0

According to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, a public unit is insured through its official custodian. All demand deposits owned by the public unit and held by the public unit's official custodian in an insured depository institution within the state at which the public unit is located are added together and insured up to $250,000 in aggregate and separate from the $250,000 coverage for public unit time and savings deposits at the same institution.

Custodial Credit Risk - Deposits - Custodial credit risk is the risk that in the event of a bank failure, the government's deposits may not be returned to it. The District Court does not have a deposit policy for custodial credit risk. As of June 30, 2018, none of the District Court's agency fund demand deposits of $146,564 were exposed to custodial credit risk as follows:

	Wells Fargo Bank	Western Bank

NOTE 3. INVESTMENTS

New Mexico State statutes require that the New Mexico State Treasurer hold and manage all operating funds on behalf of the District Court. Such funds are held in the State’s General Fund Investment Pool. The District Court’s interest in the pool is considered to be a cash equivalent. At June 30, 2018, the balance is as follows:

	Share Fund	Fund	Maturities	Fair Value
State General Fund Investment Pool	14600	General	1 day to 3 years	$193,234
State General Fund Investment Pool	52100	Mediation	1 day to 3 years	53,355
State General Fund Investment Pool	68370	ADR	2 day to 3 years	16,510
				$263,099

Interest Rate Risk – The District Court does not have an investment policy that limits investment maturities as a means of managing its exposure to fair value losses arising from increasing interest rates.

Credit Risk – The State’s General Fund Investment Pool is not rated.

For additional GASB 40 disclosure information related to the State’s General Fund Investment Pool, the reader should see the separate audit report for the State Treasurer for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2018.

The Court’s general operating bank account is under the oversight of the State Treasurer’s Office. Since SHARE was implemented, the Court has performed internal reconciliation procedures to ensure that cash receipts and disbursements recorded in the SHARE system are, in fact, transactions that have been initiated by the Court. The reconciliation occurs each month and any required adjustments are addressed with the Financial Control Division at DFA and corrected. Monthly reconciliation procedures throughout the Fiscal Year include, but are not limited to, validation of deposits, expenditures, all general entries, operating transfers, and payroll expenditures/liabilities by fund. This monthly internal reconciliation of cash receipts and disbursements flowing through the Court’s share of the state general fund investment pool provides court management assurance that the balance reflected in State General Fund Investment Pool account is accurate as of the end of the reporting period. In addition, the Court reconciles other assets and liability accounts on the Balance Sheet of each fund. This process also provides additional assurance that transactions affecting the Court’s share in the State General Fund Investment Pool account are accurate.

Year of Service	Hours Earned Per Pay Period	Hours of Maximum Accrual
Pay 1 – 3 years	4.62	240
Over 3 – 7 years	5.54	240
Over 7 – 14 years	6.46	240
Over 14 years and beyond	7.39	240

A maximum of 240 hours of accrued annual leave may be carried forward into the beginning of the next calendar year and any excess is lost. When employees terminate, they are compensated for accumulated unpaid annual leave as of the date of termination, up to the aforementioned maximums.

Accrued Sick Leave

Under provisions of NMSA 1978, Section 10-7-10, employees who accumulate more than 600 hours of sick leave are entitled to be paid for unused sick leave in excess of 600 hours at a rate equal to 50% of the employee’s hourly rate of pay for up to 120 hours of sick leave. Payments may be made only once per fiscal year in either July or January. At retirement, employees can receive fifty percent payment for up to 400 hours for the hours over 600 hours of accumulated sick leave.

Employees who terminate receive no payment for accumulated sick leave. Therefore, the only sick leave that has been accrued represents the hours earned at June 30, 2018, over 600 hours. Expenditures for accumulated sick leave pay for less than 600 hours will be recognized as employees take such absences.

The amount recorded as a long-term liability in the government-wide statements for compensated absences consist of accrued annual leave and accrued sick leave as follows:

	Balance June 30, 2017	Increases	Decreases	Balance June 30, 2018	Amounts Due Within One Year

REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING AND ON COMPLIANCE
AND OTHER MATTERS BASED ON AN AUDIT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS PERFORMED IN ACCORDANCE WITH *GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS

Independent Auditor's Report

Mr. Wayne Johnson, State Auditor and
Honorable Jennifer E. Delaney, Chief Judge
State of New Mexico
Sixth Judicial District Court
Silver City, New Mexico

We have audited, in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements of the governmental activities, each major fund, the aggregate remaining fund information, the budgetary comparisons of the general fund and major special revenue funds, of the Sixth Judicial District Court as of and for the year ended June 30, 2018, and the related notes to the financial statements, which collectively comprise the Sixth Judicial District Court's basic financial statements and have issued our report thereon dated October 5, 2018.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit, of the financial statements, we considered Sixth Judicial District Court's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) to determine the audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinions on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Sixth Judicial District Court's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Sixth Judicial District Court's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Mr. Wayne Johnson, State Auditor and
Honorable Jennifer E. Delaney, Chief Judge
State of New Mexico
Sixth Judicial District Court
Page Two

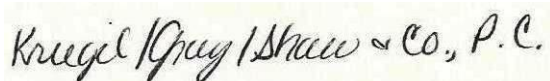

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies and therefore, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses.

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether the Sixth Judicial District Court's financial statements are free of material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the result of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the entity's internal control and compliance. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.
